STATEMENT (Continued)

Q. Didn't you make any attempt to turn in this ordnance prior to your return to active duty in the U.S. Army?

A. Yes, but at the time we had a new demolition NCO, who told me that I should take it out and destroy it somewhere because it would be too much trouble to return it to the explosives bunker.

Q. Do you recall the name of the individual who gave you those instructions?

A. No I do not, we are talking about 1968, and as I remember, he was brand new in the unit.

Q. Do you know if this was a common practice by other members of that unit?

A. As I recall, it was a common practice, but one that would very probably be denied. In fact if I remember correctly, A SGT WELCH or WELSH, was relieved for misuse of ordnance materials.

Q. Is there anything you wish to add or have deleted from your statement at this time?

A. No.

ADMINISTRATIVE: For the information of Philadelphia and Seattle, on 5/1/71 at approximately 1:14 a.m., a pipe bomb exploded in the entrance of captioned bank, causing approximately $6,000 damage. No injuries sustained; however, explosion damaged several residences in the area and steel fragments were found 400 feet from where the bomb was placed. Preliminary investigation indicated device used was a steel pipe, approximately three to four inches in diameter, about eight inches in length, capped at both ends, with three-inch pipe caps, and filled with black powder. Subsequent lab analysis indicates presence of nitrocellulous, an ingredient in smokeless powder.

Between 1:30 a.m. and 1:35 a.m. a radio disk jockey in San Jose, California, received an anonymous telephone call from a male individual who stated the bombing was done in "solidarity with the struggle of Vietnamese people." A resident living near the bank observed an old model truck with wooden stake sides pass slowly through the vicinity of captioned bank a couple of times about 10 minutes before the explosion.

On 5/3/71, the "Santa Cruz Sentinel," a local newspaper, received a letter from the "Revolutionary Army, Santa Cruz Platoon," claiming credit for the bombing.

On May 1, 1971, Sergeant ROBERT ASHLEY, Detective Bureau, Santa Cruz Police Department (SCPD), Santa Cruz, California, advised that he received a telephone call from a Mr. JIM HARRINGTON, who resides at 159 Myrtle Street, Santa Cruz, California. Mr. HARRINGTON advised Sergeant ASHLEY that in September, 1970, while he (Mr. HARRINGTON) was working at the Palomar Garage in Santa Cruz he met an individual named JOHN M. G. BROWN and his wife (name unrecalled). Mr. HARRINGTON further advised that during the business transaction with the BROWNs they made several derogatory remarks about the United States Government. Mr. HARRINGTON stated that Mr. BROWN was quite volatile in his remarks and at one point made a statement to the effect "The only way there can be changes in this country is to have a few bombings."

Mr. HARRINGTON also advised Sergeant ASHLEY that BROWN told him that he was a Vietnam veteran and that while he was fighting in Vietnam his wife, Mrs. BROWN, was one of the leaders in the 1968 Chicago democratic convention riots.

Mr. HARRINGTON told Sergeant ASHLEY that he recalled the above incident with the BROWNs after he learned of the bombing of the Bank of America on Mission Street and thought that he should provide this information to the Santa Cruz Police Department.

It was determined through a previous FBI investigation that JOHN M. G. BROWN is identical with JOHN MARSHALL GEST BROWN, JR.

In March, 1971, BROWN resided at 5377 Branciforte Drive, Santa Cruz, California, with his wife, JOSEPHINE DUKE BROWN. BROWN is described as a white male, born on January 11, 1947, at Bryn Mar, Pennsylvania. BROWN is 6 feet tall, 170 pounds, brown hair, blue eyes, and has Social Security Number 195-38-4114. It was also determined in this investigation that BROWN served in the U. S. Marine Corps from June, 1964, to July, 1965, and was assigned serial number 209-66-19. Brown also served in the U. S. Army from January 30, 1967, to January 29, 1970, and was assigned serial number RA 11869370.

On May 1, 1971, Mrs. DAN FORBUS, 5373 Branciforte Drive, Santa Cruz, California, advised that JOHN BROWN and his wife, JOSEPHINE, reside at 5377 Branciforte Drive. Mrs. FORBUS stated that the BROWNs live in a makeshift cabin on top of a hill behind their (FORBUS') home, and that they keep pretty much to themselves. On one occasion, Mr. BROWN told Mrs. FORBUS that he made ammunition which he sold to Fort Ord, a military post in Monterey County, California. She stated that BROWN drives an older type pickup truck, dark green in color, with wooden stake sides. Mrs. FORBUS also stated that BROWN used to fire a large weapon in the hills which looked like a bazooka until the residents complained to him about the noise.

On May 1, 1971, BROWN and his wife were observed driving a dark green pickup, possibly a 1953 Chevrolet, with wooden stake sides attached to the bed of the truck. At the time of this observation, the BROWNs were making their exit onto a dirt road which leads to their cabin.

Philadelphia and Seattle should also note that JOSEPHINE DUKE BROWN, the wife of JOHN MARSHALL GEST BROWN, JR., also considered a possible suspect in this case, is the Subject of Bufile 100-450616, and is a Security Index Subject, Priority 3.

On 4/28/71, records of the Pacific Telephone Company, San Jose, California, reflected that the BROWNs had telephone service at 4377 Branciforte Drive, Santa Cruz, California, discontinued on 4/28/71, supposedly because they were moving to British Columbia, Canada. b6 Per FBI b7C Per FBI

The investigative period of this report overlaps the previous report of 7/1/71 to include investigation conducted at St. Louis and Fort Rucker, Alabama.

Don't appear to be from FGJ subpoena

Per Bureau's standing instructions regarding Bank of America bombings in California, information copies of this report are being furnished to Los Angeles, Sacramento, and San Diego Divisions.

In view of ROBERT WESLEY RACKSTRAW's demolitions training and present investigative status by military regarding allegations he falsely obtained a commission, besides the fact he is from the San Francisco Division area, further investigation is being set forth to obtain additional background for inclusion of RACKSTRAW on the Potential Bomb Suspect List in the event he is discharged and returns to this area.

ARMY

Accordingly, the copies of this report are being designated to the 115th Military Intelligence Group, San Francisco, California, and CID, Detachment H, 3rd Military Police Group, Fort Rucker, Alabama, in view of RACKSTRAW's military status, and his statements regarding illegal handling of explosives at the Presidio of San Francisco, California, (Headquarters, 6th United States Army.)

AT BERKELEY, CALIFORNIA

On July 15, 1971, Inspector R. MICHAEL O'KEEFE, Bomb Squad, Berkeley, California, Police Department (BPD), advised SA THOMAS FRANK HOWARD that in regard to his search of the DON LOUIS CHURCH residence in Oakland, California, no typewriter or other typed materials of value were found, which could have been used for comparison with the anonymous letter received by the "Santa Cruz Sentinel" newspaper on May 3, 1971, from a group calling themselves the "Revolutionary Army, Santa Cruz Platoon."

Also on this date, at the request of Inspector O'KEEFE, the fragments from the pipe bomb in this case were released to the custody of Inspector O'KEEFE for examination.

Inspector O'KEEFE advised SA HOWARD he wanted to compare these pipe fragments with those he had recovered at the crime scene of the bombing of the South Berkeley Branch of Bank of America on March 3, 1971, and April 20, 1971, as well as the bombing of the Security Pacific National Bank, Berkeley Center Building, on February 27, 1971.

Inspector O'KEEFE noted local warrants of arrest were issued at Berkeley, California, for DON LOUIS CHURCH and MARY KATHLEEN BROOKS, charging them with the bombing of the South Berkeley Branch of the Bank of America on March 3, 1971, and the bombing of the Berkeley Center Building on February 27, 1971. CHURCH is presently in custody awaiting trial. The present whereabouts of MARY KATHLEEN BROOKS is still unknown and Inspector O'KEEFE stated no new information has been developed which would assist in locating BROOKS.

Inspector O'KEEFE advised he would furnish the FBI with the results of his examination, which will include comparison of thread cuts, metal composition, and other comparisons which might identify these fragments to have similar characteristics to the types used in the above mentioned bombings, which were determined to have been in the possession of CHURCH on or about February 9, 1971, according to Inspector O'KEEFE.

RACKSTRAW was orally advised of his rights as appear on a warning and waiver form which was then read to him and given to him to read and he waived his rights as shown on the signed waiver.

He advised that back in 1966 and 1967, while in Santa Cruz, California, he was in the military reserve, with the 12th Special Forces, Detachment B from the Prasidio, California. He advised that with this group he was working with explosives for training purposes. He advised that on some of these demonstrations after it was over and they had not detonated some of the explosives on leaving the area they would put some of these things in their cars and would take them home. He advised that he did this on a number of occasions and had tried to turn in some of these things to the Sergeant in Charge and was told that it was to hard to explain how they received explosives back. He advised that the Sergeant told him that the records showed that these explosives had been detonated and that they could not be returned to the military. He advised that this also happened with ammunition, smoke grenades, and other type of military equipment.

ARMY

He advised that he could not recall this Sergeant's name and stated that he destroyed some of these items, threw some in the ocean, and kept some and placed them in storage at his father-in-laws garage in Santa Cruz, California. He advised that he talked to his ex-wife in California and questioned her as to why they didn't notify him that they had
